One day I was in the city Ann Arbor. I was taking a walk to the park. All of the sudden a dinosaur jumped out a bush. I was scared at first I knew it was a meat eating dinosaur but it wasn't attacking me so I knew it was a friendly dinosaur. After that I started asking him a lot of questions. I asked him how old are you? He said I am 8 years old. You are 8 that is young and I am 8 too. I asked what year he was born in? He said he was born on December 14 2007 5 in the morning.
